Front or Panda face panel:
Hoop your stabilizer. I used 3 oz cutaway.
Run the placement stitches then lay down the front fabric, not run the tack down stitches and the placement stitches for the panda face.
Lay down the face fabric and the ear fabric.
Run the tack down stitches then trim the face and ear fabric. Run the placement for the eyes then lay down the eye fabric. Run the tack down stitches then trim eye fabric. Run the rest of the panda face. Now lay down the back fabric and run the tack down stitches. Trim the fabric front and back and then run the rest of the panel.

Back panel and pocket:
Hoop your stabilizer and run the pocket placement stitches. Lay down the front and back fabric and run the tack down stitches. Trim the front and back fabric and run to the end of the panel.

Hoop your stabilizer and run the tack down stitches lay down the front and back fabric. Run the tack down stitches. Trim fabric and lay down the pocket matching at the sides and along the bottom. I tape in place to hold while stitching. Run to the end of the panel.

Bag sides and flap top:
Hoop the stabilizer and run the tack down stitches, lay down the front and back fabric and run the tack down stitches. Trim excess fabric and then run to the end of panel. you need 3 sides for form the sides and bottom of the purse. you need one top flap.

Hoop the stabilizer and run the placement stitches. Lay down the front and back fabric. Run the tack down stitches then trim the excess fabric. Run the placement stitches for the bow then lay down the bow fabric. Run the tack down stitches then trim the bow fabric run to the end of panel.

To assemble:
stitch the flap top to the purse front.
Stitch the 3 sides together as shown. then stitch to the front of the purse working from end to end and around the corners.
Now attach the pocket side of the purse to the sides.
Now attach the bow flap to the top flap.
You can hand stitch using a whip stitch or use your sewing machine and a zigzag stitch.
